

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!
 d
 d
 d
 on - Needed
 ening, please
 ail.com.

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.
 ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.
 s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil and sweat to get food. I told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10-11).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the revelation of the children of God" (Romans 8:19-22).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's face, he pulled the sweater over his eyes. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I was in the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to toil to get crops from the ground and eat them. He would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, until he returned to the ground, because he was dust. For he had taken from the earth dust to make man." (Gen. 3:17-19). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love one another, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:12). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of those who obeyed their own flesh, the devil, and Satan, who were set up against God. We are waiting for the new heavens and the new earth, in which God will dwell with us and will wipe away every tear from our eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the former order of things has passed away." (Romans 8:18-25)

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, until he returns to the ground, for out of it he was taken" (Gen. 3:17-19). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love one another, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the revelation of the children of God" (Rom. 8:19-21).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. How do we love one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and he told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food. I have toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2). I had caused the ground to be cursed. I told Eve pain in child-bearing. My pain increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food. He toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. I told Eve pain in child-bearing. My pain was increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to toil to get crops from the ground and eat them. He would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, because he had refused to listen to the Lord his God. He would be a wanderer and a vagabond, because he had refused to listen to the Lord his God." (Gen. 3:17-19). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love one another, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these evil conditions, because we know the whole of creation has been made subject to futility by God's will. We know that the whole of creation has been groaning in pain under these evil conditions, because we know the whole of creation has been made subject to futility by God's will. We know that the whole of creation has been groaning in pain under these evil conditions, because we know the whole of creation has been made subject to futility by God's will." (Rom. 8:19-22).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but the conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the redemption of our bodies" (Romans 8:19-22).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being brought into subjection to Christ. And we know that he will bring all things into subjection to himself, even those who are enemies of the church. He will bring them into subjection to himself, and he will destroy every enemy who is currently opposing the church. He will bring them into subjection to himself, and he will destroy every enemy who is currently opposing the church. He will bring them into subjection to himself, and he will destroy every enemy who is currently opposing the church."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's face, he pulled the sweater over his head. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but the conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that I would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed" (Rom. 8:19-21).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil and sweat to get food. I told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (1 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food. He toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (1 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that because he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). God had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve had caused the ground to be cursed so that she would have to give birth in pain and her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have been in the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10-11).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I had told Eve pain in child-bearing and my suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being brought into subjection to Christ."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you," God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil and sweat to eat bread (Gen. 3:17). I told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the revelation of the children of God" (Rom. 8:19-22).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's face, he pulled the sweater over his head. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10-11).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face. He told Eve pain in child-bearing, and she would have many children, and her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you love God, God will draw near to you" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fullness of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed" (Rom. 8:19-22).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but the conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the revelation of the sons of God" (Rom. 8:19).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's face, he pulled the sweater over his eyes. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!
 d
 d
 d
 on - Needed
 ening, please
 ail.com.

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time. . . .
 . . . was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.
 . . . , which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is merciful and thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love one another, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being brought into subjection under Christ."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fullness of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's face, he pulled the sweater over his eyes. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I told Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and the number of children increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being brought into subjection to Christ. And we know that he will bring all things into subjection to himself, even those who are his enemies, when he has defeated them. Then he will subject them to his feet" (1 Cor. 15:25-28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that I would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10-11).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to love.

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and he told Eve pain in child-bearing and sorrow would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!
 d
 d
 on - Needed
 ening, please
 ail.com.

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.
 ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.
 s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and he had told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have been in the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the revelation of the children of God" (Romans 8:19-22).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil and sweat to eat bread (Gen. 3:17). I told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, until he returned to the ground, for he had taken from it. He told Eve pain in child-bearing, and she would have many children, and her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her, as he ruled the ground. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fullness of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!
 d
 d
 on - Needed
 ening, please
 ail.com.

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.
 ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.
 s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil and sweat to get food. I told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we know that the conditions in this world will improve. God has put in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he told Eve pain in child-bearing, and she would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being brought into subjection under Christ."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil to get food from it and I would have pain in child-bearing and my pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!
 d
 d
 on - Needed
 ening, please
 ail.com.

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time. . . .
 ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, the pastor pulled the sweater over his face. And several preachers appeared on screen with their faces covered by media filters.
 s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to toil to get crops from the ground and eat them. He would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, and he would be a slave to the ground. He would have to eat the bread of hardship, and he would have to eat it until he was hungry. He would have to toil in the heat of the day and in the heat of the night, and he would have to eat the bread of hardship, and he would have to eat it until he was hungry. He would have to toil in the heat of the day and in the heat of the night, and he would have to eat the bread of hardship, and he would have to eat it until he was hungry." Second, God allows struggle so that we can be drawn closer to Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we are drawn close to God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fullness of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these heavy burdens, and that the creation itself longs for redemption, as we do, but in hope. For the creation has been subjected to futility, just as we are. It awaits its redemption, the redemption of our bodies. We have been saved in hope, but we have not yet been fully saved, because we still have to suffer with Christ, so that we may also be glorified with him. If we suffer with Christ, we will also be glorified with him. If we are faithful, we will share his glory, just as we have shared his suffering. For God's purpose was that Christ should suffer for us and so redeem us from all wickedness, and purify for himself a peculiar people, zealous of good deeds." (Colossians 1:26-29)

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

Many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

One service was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, the pastor's face was visible through the media filters.

A video of a pastor, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

Many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

One service was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, the pastor's face was visible through the media filters.

A video of a pastor, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is merciful and thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to love.

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve had caused the ground to be cursed so that she would have to give birth in pain and that her children would be born in pain and sorrow (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being brought into subjection under Christ."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food. He toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

Many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

One service was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, the pastor's face was visible through the media filters.

A video of a pastor, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the revelation of the sons of God" (Rom. 8:19).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10-11).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil and sweat to get food. I told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. How do we love one we love?

I found a question this morning in a devotional resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions. Here is one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to love.

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the revelation of the sons of God" (Rom. 8:19).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the revelation of the children of God" (Rom. 8:19-21).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I was in the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I told Eve pain in child-bearing and my suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). Eve had caused the ground to be cursed and she had told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food. He toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10-11).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I had told Eve pain in child-bearing and I had increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. How do we love one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to toil to get crops from the ground and eat them. He would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, until he returned to the ground, because he was dust. For he had taken from the ground and put it in the woman's womb." (Gen. 3:17-19). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love one another, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:12). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these heavy burdens, and that the creation itself longs for redemption, as we do, but in hope. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these heavy burdens, and that the creation itself longs for redemption, as we do, but in hope. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these heavy burdens, and that the creation itself longs for redemption, as we do, but in hope." (Romans 8:18-23)

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, he was seen from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my own pain increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (1 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!
 d
 d
 d
 on - Needed
 ening, please
 ail.com.

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.
 ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.
 s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I told Eve pain in child-bearing and my suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but the conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the screen from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). Eve had caused the ground to be cursed and she told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

Many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

One service was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, the pastor's face was visible through the media filters.

A video of a pastor, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is merciful and thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I was in the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing and the number of children increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I told Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to toil to get crops from the ground and eat them. He would have to sweat to get bread to eat. Eve told Eve pain in child-bearing would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's face, he pulled the sweater over his eyes. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fullness of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). Eve had caused the ground to be cursed and she had told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food. He toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my own pain increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I had told Eve pain in child-bearing and my suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to love.

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Peter 3:10-11).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). Eve had caused the ground to be cursed and she had told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15-16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that I would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (1 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to toil and sweat to eat bread (Gen. 3:17). I told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we know that the conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed" (Rom. 8:19-22).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the revelation of the children of God" (Rom. 8:19).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the screen from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being brought into subjection under Christ."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but the conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I had told Eve pain in child-bearing and I had increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). I had caused the ground to be cursed so that I would have to tell Eve pain in child-bearing and that my pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (2 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to toil to get food from the ground. He told Eve pain in child-bearing, and she would have more children than she could count (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified in Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but we have a vision of the conditions in this world that will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next, or one we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). I had caused the ground to be cursed and I had told Eve pain in child-bearing and my suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed" (Rom. 8:19).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to produce food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, he was cut off. Several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and he told Eve pain in child-bearing and her suffering increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles and that he would have to toil to get food from the ground. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we can have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if we love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we can have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d
 d

d
 d

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I was in the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- Upcoming Events and Information
- Anniversaries
- Birthdays
- Children's Ministry
- Memorials & Special Gifts
- Stewardship Update
- Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you love God, God will draw near to us" (1 John 4:19). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and waiting for the revelation of the sons of God" (Rom. 8:19).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the preacher's sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is so thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that he would have to toil and sweat to get food. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would increase (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are working together for good for those who love God" (Rom. 8:28).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her desire would be for her husband, and he would rule over her. He increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed. We know that the whole creation is groaning and in pain, waiting for the children of God to be revealed."

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:15). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he would have to toil to get crops from the ground and eat them. He would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, and he would be a slave to the ground. He would have to eat the bread of adversity and drink the cup of sorrow, and he would live in thorns and thistles. He would have to toil to get crops from the ground and eat them. He would have to eat bread by the sweat of his face, and he would be a slave to the ground. He would have to eat the bread of adversity and drink the cup of sorrow, and he would live in thorns and thistles." God told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be drawn closer to Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God to come. "We know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these evil conditions, waiting for the children of God to appear. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these evil conditions, waiting for the children of God to appear. For we know that the whole creation has been groaning in pain under these evil conditions, waiting for the children of God to appear." (Romans 8:19-22)

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have entered the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:16). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles, and he told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I have seen the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, ". . . if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

d

d

on - Needed

ening, please
mail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen through media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you." God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:17). He had caused the ground to be cursed and told Eve pain in child-bearing would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, God allows struggle so that we can be glorified with Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ. In fact, we suffer with him so that we may be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to us" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. It puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology
 pers and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ng was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close
 es from his sweater. And several preachers appeared on screen
 media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God
 e thankful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with faith and nurture Children

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101

Non Profit Organization
 US POSTAGE PAID
 Permit No. 1
 Gibsonville, NC 27249

The Newsletter Of Gibsonville United Methodist Church

Gibsonville United Methodist Church exists to Welcome people, grow as disciples, and Send us into the world to serve and to

August 2020

Inside this issue...

- ♦ Upcoming Events and Information
- ♦ Anniversaries
- ♦ Birthdays
- ♦ Children's Ministry
- ♦ Memorials & Special Gifts
- ♦ Stewardship Update
- ♦ Youth Ministry

Live Streaming

In order to access this new worship opportunity:

- Go to our church's website, www.gibsonvilleumc.org
- Scroll down to 9:00AM Contemporary or 11:00AM Traditional Worship Service (live stream)
- Press or click on (live stream)
- This will bring you to the selection of screens for our services.
- For LIVE Streaming click or press on the forward arrow.
- For one of the prior Sunday recorded services, select the video for that date.

This year, 2020, has been a trying one for the world.

There is the worldwide pandemic of coronavirus. As of today (July 27), nearly 16.25 million have been infected and nearly 650,000 people have died. It's on our minds. We wonder if we are next. One we love?

I found a question this morning in a resource I use. (Feasting on the Word, vol. 2).

Technically, there are three questions, but one idea.

- A. Why do you think God allows struggle in our lives?
- B. How have times of struggle affected your walk with God?
- C. How does your relationship with God affect your view of overwhelming problems in the world such as poverty, violence, or injustice?

WHY GOD ALLOWS STRUGGLE

I think God allows times of struggle in our lives for four reasons. First, to struggle is part of the human condition. Scripture says, "I have entered the picture at the same time as you. I was in the picture. God told Adam that he sinned that he (Adam) would eat food that he toiled and sweated for bread (Gen. 2:2-3). He had caused the ground to be cursed so that it would produce thorns and thistles. He told Eve pain in child-bearing and that her pain would be increased (Gen. 2:16). Second, I think God allows struggle so that we can be like Christ. We are joint heirs with Christ, and in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him" (Rom. 8:17). Third, I think God allows struggle so that we may have a "closer walk," a "more intimate relationship" with God. Scripture says, "... if you draw near to God, God will draw near to you" (James 4:8). Fourth, I think God allows struggle in our lives so that we may have hope for a better world. Not only do we have hope, but conditions in this world will improve. Scripture puts in our heart a yearning for the full Kingdom of God to come. "We know that all things are being made new" (1 Cor. 5:17).

Shine On, Friends!

Friendship is one of the greatest gifts a human being can receive. It is a bond beyond common goals, common interests or common histories. It is a bond stronger than sexual union can create, deeper than a shared fate can solidify and even more intimate than the bonds of marriage or community.

Friendship is being with the other in joy and sorrow, even when we cannot increase the joy or decrease the sorrow. It is a unity of souls that gives nobility and sincerity to love. Friendship makes all of life shine brightly.

—Henri Nouwen

Friendship

er that will
 l be provided!

on - Needed

ening, please
 ail.com.

f the wooden
 cushions with

Laughing—On The Fly

many pastors and worship leaders had to learn new technology and bobbles added levity to the tense time.

ing was being broadcast from Georgia. After getting too close to the camera, several preachers appeared on screen through the media filters.

s, which didn't cause injury but quickly went viral. "But God is faithful and merciful." "But God is faithful and merciful."

August Music News At GUMC

Have you been able to join us online for 11 AM Sunday worship? I certainly hope so! While the GUMC Chancel Choir and Handbells have not been practicing or “performing,” there are so many other good reasons for you to have tuned in and be tuning in from home. First and foremost, Pastor Barry has been offering some great sermons, most recently on the Sermon on the Mount. He’s also been receiving strong support on-site not only from Donna Lemons and Tim Wood on media, and me on piano, but also from our new children’s/youth director Ezekiel Gillie and from our new contemporary worship leader Jessie Gillie. Last and not least, Joe Cline, John Landphair, and Matt Morrow have stepped in to lead the singing of traditional hymns.

I know that not all of our readers share my enthusiasm for traditional hymnody, but I refuse to yield my bully pulpit here! If your Methodist background at all resembles mine, you’ve got hymn texts and melodies buried as deep in your soul as almost any childhood memory. Much of your personal theology – who God is and how God acts – probably owes almost as much to the texts of hymns you’ve sung communally as to your reading and reciting of Holy Scripture. I know that it’s possible, as you view current worship services from home, not to participate with Joe, John, or Matt in singing our traditional hymns, but I strongly urge you, as John Wesley did in 1761, to “sing lustily and with a good courage.” Blessings on you for singing your heart out!

Rob Hallquist
Director of Music in Traditional Worship

Offering Counters for August: Purple Team Deleno Flynn, Howard Hendricks, Nancy Shepherd

Our Gifts

By our Gifts (as of 6/30/20)

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| Annual Budget | 336,528 |
| Operating Fund Received in June | 22,686 |
| Operating Fund Received Year to Date | 127,347 |
| Operating Fund Needed Budget to Date | 168,264 |
| Above/(Below) Budget to Date | (40,917) |
| Building Fund received in June | 3,315 |
| Building Fund received Year to Date | 27,982 |
| Mortgage Payments Year to Date | 42,720 |
| Above/(Below) Mortgage Payments YTD | (14,738) |
| Mortgage Principal Balance | 698,457 |

A complete copy of the current financial statement is available in the Welcome Center.

Children

We UPLIFT, SERVE, and CONNECT with
faith and nurture CH

Parenthood

Being a parent in this pandemic is not an easy task. Some of you have never spent this much time with your children and you might be feeling overwhelmed. Here is some children basics to think about. At the heart of everything your child(ren) do are two questions. 1. Who Loves Me? And 2. Who Is In Charge? That is what every child wants to know. Kids might think they want to be in charge and so they fight you and push their limits and work towards getting their own way. But that is too much pressure for a child to carry. They will feel much safer and worry less when they know you are in charge. It is equally important that you let them know how much you love them. I quite often tell my children (when they are being bossy, or repeat my directions) “I do not need your help. I am in charge. It is not your job to tell everybody what to do.” I also tell them “I love you super much and my words and rules are to keep you safe.” You will face some push back at first, but it is vital to all parents that your children know: 1. You Are In Charge, and 2. You Love Them! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ezekiel Gillie.

Drive-Thru Appreciate You!

We will be Appreciating our Sunday School Teachers and Youth Volunteers August 8th from 10am-12pm in the Joyner Street parking lot. We look forward to celebrating you .

Ezekiel Gillie: Children and Youth Director

Ezekiel.gillie@gibsonvilleumc.org

336-449-4810 ext.101