A Pen And A Thought

I am so excited! I bet you think I am excited about my upcoming retirement. Well, I have to admit that after pastoring churches for 32 years, I am looking forward to trying my hand at something else. And, of course, there is the matter of “having” to live in Charleston, SC, just a few minutes from our daughter and her partner, Ellie. The Atlantic Ocean is about 30-45 minutes away, so that will not be a bad thing, either! Only someone without a firm grip on reality would not be excited about all of that! All of this has not completely sunk in yet, but I know it will come.

But today I am excited because yesterday (Sun. Apr 24) at worship we learned who the new pastor will be for Gibsonville UMC after I retire.

I have a “human thought,” and a “theological reflection,” to share.

As to the human thought, my experience has been that it is well-nigh impossible for a new pastor to share many of their successes and experiences in ministry, lest they be seen as flashing their own lights and tooting their own horn. So provide me a little leeway while I flash and toot for her.

Carol Carkin is a “young woman,” with a husband and a son. (Howard Hendricks, SPRC Chair) told us her age yesterday in the congregational announcement. She has served several churches in the Western North Carolina Conference, and is a graduate of Duke Divinity School.

But just a couple of things that will give you a better picture of her experience as a Pastor are these. She was chosen to participate in the Reynolds Leadership Program. Reynolds Leadership was begun by Royce and Jane Reynolds several years ago. It is a year-long program that not everyone who applies to is accepted. Its main thrust is to develop excellence in church management and leadership. She has also participated in the Selah Clergy Health Initiative sponsored by the Duke

Health Initiative. The purpose of the Selah Program is to empower clergy persons to practice healthy living and coping skills. Clergy have unique challenges as persons navigating through life and ministry.

Rev. Carkin has also participated in the Davidson Center for the Professions. Several professionals gather for a week of learning and reflecting around the topic of discovering more about their chosen profession and how to be more resilient and effective in their own particular callings.

All of this is to say that she has prepared herself very well and consciously for a lifetime of effective, fruitful ministry. That is the “human thought” I wanted to share with you.

My theological reflection is this. God is consistently presented in the Scripture as doing a “new thing.” One of my favorite passages related to this theme of newness is Isaiah 42:9: “See, the former things have taken place, and new things I now declare; before they spring into being I announce them to you.”

Life is constantly changing. God is the author of life. So the new things that happen in the world, and in the church, have God standing behind them. In fact, aside from the evil that humans do to one another, God is the change agent. Somehow God is bringing about change at Gibsonville UMC. I believe it is God's will for me to retire from full-time ministry. With that occurrence comes a need for a new Pastor. So I also believe that in the mind and heart of God, Rev. Carol Carkin has been led by God to be the next Pastor of GUMC!

I am as excited about that as anything I know.

For those of you who are wondering “what can I do?” the best thing you can do right now is to begin to pray for Pastor Carol, and her family, Jesse (husband) and Isaiah (son).

Fixed Hours of Prayer

As summer approaches, you may look forward to a more relaxed routine. But don't discard all your good habits and commitments! For soul care, try fixed hours of prayer. Simply expand the concept of praying at set times (such as before meals and bed) into praying regularly each morning, midday and evening. Set an alarm on your watch or phone and commit to engaging with God at the specified times. You can do this on your own or with family or friends.

You can pray using Scripture verses, devotional guides, the Book of Common Prayer or a resource such as ExploreFaith.org. (When I'm tired or overwhelmed, it's helpful to pray someone else's words.) You might want to pray the same prayers morning, noon and evening for a week or a month. This practice isn't meant to replace spontaneous prayers. Instead, use fixed hours of prayer to nurture a consistent habit of conversing with God.

—Janna Firestone

Where Home Is

As Christians, we trust that after this life, we'll be safe with God in heaven. What heaven is like is a mystery, but we rely on images from the Bible, including “the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven” (Revelation 21:2). Wait — what? Usually we imagine going “up” to God. What a difference to picture God's city, and God himself, “coming down” to us!

When we travel from the place we know best to visit others, no matter how much we love them we usually don't feel “at home.” On the other hand, when I went from college to visit my parents and sisters, I was immediately at home, not just physically but emotionally.

Revelation 21:3 (NRSV) says, “The home of God is among mortals.” God is “at home” with us! He knows our routines, understands how we live, fits right in. We don't have to behave in any special way, like for “company,” because God is family. He “gets” us and loves us. Best of all, because God is at home with us, we can be at home with God.

—Heidi Hyland Mann

By the time of the next "Pen and Thought," (June 1) I hope to be able to tell you a little more about our future plans. Right now the only thing certain is that Donna and I plan to serve the Lord in whatever way God leads us.

"Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18).

Pastor Barry

Meet Our New Pastor

Her name is Carol Carkin. She comes to us from Concord, NC.

Carol is married to Jesse Carkin and they have a son, Isaiah, who is 13.

Carol brings to us strong leadership abilities, having participated in several leadership training programs in the past. She considers herself to be a collaborative leader, ready to seek help from "colleagues, mentors, and laity." "God equips those God calls," and Carol considers it a privilege to be of use and to help equip the body of Christ for ministry and to lead in worship.

On 25 April I shall contact her, and we will establish a date and time for their initial visit to our church campus, to tour the parsonage and the church. In addition, she will meet with the church staff, Staff Pastor Parish Relations committee, and church leaders.

I know you all will join me in welcoming Carol and her family to Gibsonville UMC and to our church family. Sincerely,

Howard Hendricks
Chairman, SPPRC

Attention Graduates

Are you graduating this year from High School, College or Graduate School? We would like to know so we can recognize you and all of your accomplishments during worship on Sunday, June 5 at the 11am service. Please contact the church office at 336-449-4810 or email info@gibsonvilleumc.org

Living The Connection

I (ie., Rev. Bev Copley, Northern Piedmont District Superintendent) feel we can benefit from a time of gathering to talk about the future, even though the next General Conference is now a few years away and there are no steps your church needs to take at this time. Even though no current action is needed, perhaps a time together will benefit your church leaders who may have questions or who may be receiving pressure from outside groups. You will have a place to ask your questions and to receive the information your church may need to calm any anxiety that may have emerged due to the postponement of General Conference.

Missions & Outreach

Fruit and Protein Collection First Sunday of Every Month

The Gibsonville First Baptist Church operates a food pantry that serves our community. Each week families/individuals receive food. Our church supports this mission by collecting food and delivering it to the food pantry. Please remember to bring non perishable food to church on Sunday, May 1 and place in the box outside the welcome center or in the closet off the narthex. Suggested food items include the following: peanut butter, canned meat, canned meat stews, rice, beans, quinoa, and canned fruit. Please check expiration dates on all donated food.

Outreach Committee - Community Spaghetti Dinner

Our next Community Spaghetti Dinner is scheduled for May 19 from 5:30—7:30pm (dine in or take out). We will serve spaghetti, a salad, bread, and dessert/cookies. We will offer folks the opportunity to eat here at the church, or grab a "To-Go-Plate". We will not ask anyone to pay for their dinners, but we will collect a Love Offering for anyone that would like to contribute to the next monthly dinner. Here's what we need from you; spaghetti noodles, sauce, plastic utensils, cookies and cakes, your time and your talents.

Contact Lynn Woodruff at (336) 266-7216 for additional information.

Thank You for an "Eggcellent" Event!!!!

Thank you to everyone who played a part in the success of our Easter Egg Hunt on April 9 – whether through your donations, helping to fill eggs with candy, volunteering at the event or inviting people to come. Nearly 50 children and their families attended this event, where they heard the Easter story and collected thousands of eggs filled with candy. Events like this truly take the work of the whole congregation, and your contributions and support do not go unnoticed or unappreciated!

Thank You Notes

We would like to thank everyone for their care and condolences during the recent loss of our loved one, Mary Sue Walker Hogan. The church sent a lovely flower and the United Methodist Women provided a delicious meal. Individual visits, prayers, calls, cards, as well as food and paper products, were comforting and sustaining. The memorials are greatly appreciated.

We would also like to thank Rev. Dr. Barry Lemons for his guidance and sermon, Tim Woods and his staff for the presentation, and custodian Kibble Davis for the seeing that made the service memorable.

Mary Sue was a lifelong member of Gibsonville United Methodist Church, even though for a long time she lived too far away to attend. Yet she kept up with church activities and always loved this church.

Pam Fagan, Lisa Barfield, Irma Walker

UMW and our Church Family,
Thank you for the nice Easter Basket. There were so many useful things in it. Willie especially enjoyed the candy! Thanks to Boyce and Nancy Johnson for all they do for the church and for delivering the baskets.

God Bless,
Willie & Barbara Ingle

Dear United Methodist Women,
You are a very thoughtful group of women and I do appreciate the goodies and your thoughtfulness so much.

Sincerely,
Bobbie Blakely

Dear Ladies of UMW,
The first thing I pulled out of my lovely Easter basket was the card which said "I serve a risen Savior" and I thought how appropriate for your group—always thinking of others. Thank you for thinking of me and making me feel so loved.

Sincerely,
Faye Martin

Dear GUMC,
Thank you for the Easter Basket and the cards I have received. I truly appreciate your thoughtfulness in remembering me in such a kind way.

Love,
Edna Weisner

Dear GUMC Family,
I want to thank you for the lovely Peace Lily you sent me in memory of my Mom, Amy Whitesell. I appreciate your thoughtfulness.

Mama loved her church family, and treasured your cards, calls, prayers and visits. She felt honored that even though she was not able to attend worship on a weekly basis, she was not forgotten.

Thank you again for the Peace Lily, but most of all, thank you for supporting Mama over the past few years at Blakey Hall.

With love and best regards,
Carla Whitesell-Dahl
